The dancers and staff of Daliana Dance are a dynamic group of people who respect each other, the art of dance, and the value of their work. Everyone who participates is expected to uphold the values and ethics that are outlined below. COMMUNICATION!

Daliana Dance uses the website, team meetings, and BAND app to communicate with parents. Parents should check BAND daily and the website regularly. Questions, comments, and concerns should be sent via BAND. Do not contact instructors directly.

 Use BAND for all communication

CLASS PLACEMENT

Dancers are placed in classes where we feel they will grow and be the most successful as an individual and class member. Our trained, educated and professional teaching staff know what combination of dancers and technical abilities will work to build successful individuals and classes.

A dancer's class placement may be adjusted to a higher or lower level based on progress and growth, maturity, availability and attendance, or any other issue deemed appropriate to consider.

Once dancers have been assigned to respective classes, please do not approach instructors about your dancer's placement. Also, please know we only want each dancer to be the absolute best they can be! Questions or concerns about this issue should be directed to: dalianadance@gmail.com.

TARDINESS

ARRIVING TO PRACTICE MORE THAN 15 MINUTES LATE IS CONSIDERED TARDY.

If your dancer is tardy (15 minutes late or more) then she/he has missed the warm up and will need to do so independently before joining in with the class. In some cases they may have to sit out depending on the lesson. If, in the opinion of the instructor, your tardiness is excessive and hampering progress of the individual or the class as a unit, the dancer can be dismissed from said class without a refund.

ABSENCES

Always inform your instructor via BAND if your dancer will not attend class.

If, in the opinion of the instructor, your absences are excessive and hampering progress of the individual or the class as a unit, the dancer can be dismissed from said class without a refund.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Safety is always the first priority. In the event of predicted or actual inclement weather before and or during classes, the Studio Owner will post class status on BAND
